5 reasons to consider townhome living

Building your dream home in the heart of a sought-after community might seem out of reach – but it doesn’t have to be. Read on to find out why you should consider townhome living.

1. Low-maintenance lifestyle

Well-designed townhomes make the most of space with expertly crafted, spacious and functional floorplans that provide connectivity and comfort. Complementing the home is a low-maintenance and modern-design outdoor space, giving you more time to do what you love.

2. Unique affordability

Townhomes provide a more cost-effective solution to purchasing property, by including extra costs usually associated with new home builds – like fencing, landscaping and finishes – as part of the fixed price. There are packages that appeal to first-home buyers, empty nesters, families and investors alike – and they may be more affordable than you think.

3. Stylish design and fantastic finishes

There is an eclectic mix of premium inclusions provided as standard with every build, allowing you to enjoy your new home from day one. Architecturally designed floorplans maximise natural light and provide a layout with liveability top of mind, giving you enough space for any activity.

4. Ease and simplicity

Buying a turn-key townhome package means that you are purchasing a complete package with all design choices made for you, making it as stress-free as possible. The only thing you need to consider are colour schemes and where to position your furniture. You can’t go wrong!
