JOIN CELEBRITIES AT ELARA'S FREE LIFESTYLE EVENTS

A range of free events aimed to make home a little sweeter will be hosted by Stockland's Elara community next month.

Celebrity appearances, cooking demonstrations, information sessions and giveaways will be on offer to locals keen to make their homes 'Insta-worthy'.

On Sunday, 10 February, Australian cricketer Simon Katich will kick off Elara's Sweeter Home Lifestyle event while the experts from Jamie's Ministry of Food hold live cooking demonstrations nearby.

There will also be dog obedience training on the day and the kids can enjoy the free craft workshops, rock climbing, face painting and more.

On Tuesday, 12 February, locals are invited to join Elara's home finance workshop for tips on how to navigate the property market and get the best deal on finance. Guests are guaranteed to leave armed with knowledge.

With limited places available for each event, visitors are encouraged to register at www.stockland.com.au/residential/events.

Stockland's Home Sweeter Home Sale is making it increasingly easier for first home buyers, families and downsizers to get into a new home by offering savings of up to $20,000 on land, plus up to $100,000 in building bonuses from 14 January to 3 March.

Richard Rhydderch, Stockland General Manager, NSW Residential Development, said that the significant savings on offer helped to make building a new home even more affordable for a wide range of customers.

"Stockland continues to lead the way with its highly liveable masterplanned communities which provide affordable, quality homes designed by our expert builder partners to suit people from all walks of life," Mr Rhydderch said.

"With a potential saving of up to $120,000 currently on house and land packages, this exciting offer provides even more value for money and a great opportunity to secure a dream home."
