

PROCESS FOR PARTICIPATING IN AURA LAND RELEASES

All land releases at Aura will be moving to an online ticketing system via Eventbrite.

The process will mean that if you are successful in registering your interest, you will receive a ticket from Eventbrite via email (sender will be noreply@orders.eventbrite.com.au). Online registrations are time stamped and tickets will be allocated based on the time of registration. Allocation of home sites will be at the sole discretion of Stockland.

At the end of the registration period our sales team will contact recipients to schedule an appointment.

Please note not all participants that receive a ticket will be successful in securing an opportunity to purchase land in the Land Release and investment opportunities are limited.
