Get to know the team at Stockland Grand Central

Hi my name is Nadhira! I joined Stockland back in May of this year and I work with Ashwin as part of the Grand Central sales team.

The best thing about Stockland Grand Central is the community we'll be creating - providing the opportunity for first home buyers, young families and upgraders to build their dream family home.

I enjoy reading, watching interior design shows and staying up to date with American politics. I also love yoga and am a qualified yoga instructor!

As far as advice goes for future buyers, I always say to live within your means and buy a home that suits your budget. The team here at Stockland Grand Central are here to help you on your journey.
