These 'first check' eligibility criteria will help you determine which grants are worth exploring further on the listed government websites.

$15K Federal HomeBuilder

Provides eligible owner-occupiers (including first home buyers) with a $15,000 grant to build a new home, substantially renovate an existing one or buy off-the-plan home and land, apartments or town houses.

If building a new home, HomeBuilder is worth exploring further if you meet ALL of the below criteria:

You are a natural person (not a company or trust), that is 18 years or older and an Australian citizen.

Construction must commence within six months of the contract being signed.

You must enter into a building or off-the-plan contract between 1 January 2021 and 31 March 2021 to build a new home as a principal place of residence, where the property value does not exceed:

- $950,000 in NSW;
- $850,000 in Victoria; or
- $750,000 in all other States and Territories.

You must meet one of the following two income caps: $125,000 per annum for an individual applicant based on your 2018-19 taxable income or later; or $200,000 per annum for a couple based on both 2018-19 taxable income or later.
